PLAN: RELEVANT, RIGOROUS, & INNOVATIVE ACADEMICS

In November 2017, Miami-Dade County Commissioner Xavier L. Suarez helped launch the Miami-Dade Youth Pre-Apprenticeship Career and Technical Training program during National Apprenticeship Week. The Miami-Dade Youth Pre-Apprenticeship Program Career and Technical Training is a 23-month program that targets eligible Miami-Dade County Public Schools 11th and 12th grade students which started in the following schools: Miami Carol City Senior High School, Coral Gables Senior High School, Miami Edison Senior High School, and Homestead Senior High School.

During the first-year of the program, 11th graders complete 150 classroom training hours and the second year, 12th graders complete an additional one hundred fifty classroom training hours in one of the pre-apprenticeship programs. Students participating in the program are provided with a network of resources that provide a unique pathway to employment.

The program is designed to help fill the employment gap and expose students to the following 13 trades: Bricklayer • Carpentry • Heating and Air-conditioning Installer Servicer • Drywall Finisher • Painter • Electrician • Elevator Constructor • Insulation Worker • Operating Engineer • Pipefitter (Construction) • Glazier • Plumber • Sheet Metal Worker.

The 23-month program is the result of a partnership Commissioner Suarez facilitated with the Florida Department of Education, CareerSource South Florida, Miami-Dade County Public Schools and 13 occupations, sponsored by 11 Registered Apprenticeship programs, in an effort to introduce registered apprenticeship opportunities at all Miami-Dade Public Schools.

In its first year, 120 11th graders at four senior high schools participated: Coral Gables Senior, Miami Edison Senior, Homestead Senior and Miami Carol City Senior High School.

Apprenticeship is a form of paid worker training that incorporates on-the-job training and classroom-based instruction; it has been proven to both raise workers’ earnings and improve companies’ bottom lines. Although the training model is a central element of the education and workforce development in many countries, few American businesses or workers are familiar with the idea of an apprenticeship.
